

National and International Links

Invited Lectures

M.G. Banwell presented lectures at the University of Heidelberg, the University of Bonn, the University of Aachen, the University of Goettingen, the Free University of Berlin, the University of Kaiserslautern, the Institute of Biotechnology, Juelich, the University of Vienna, the University of Munich, the Mahidol University, Bangkok and the Chulabhorn Research Institute, Bangkok.

N.E. Brasch presented a lecture at the University of Sheffield, U.K.

M.A. Collins presented a lecture at the University of Leiden, Germany.

R. Dewhurst, A.F. Hill, E.R. Humphrey, M. Schultz and N. Tshabang presented seminars at joint symposia on Organometallic Chemistry held at the University of New South Wales (14.03.02) and the ANU (29.11.02).

N.E. Dixon gave invited lectures at the Institute of Enzymology, Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Budapest, the University of Newcastle NSW, the University of Wollongong, and James Cook University.

C.J. Easton was Erskine Visiting Professor, University of Canterbury, Christchurch, New Zealand and presented lectures at the University of Otago, the University of Melbourne, the University of Wollongong, and GlaxoSmithKline (UK).

A.F. Hill presented lectures at the RMIT University, Melbourne and the University of Sydney.

H. Onagi presented an invited lecture at the University of Adelaide.

G. Otting gave seminars at JCSMR and for the NMR Discussion Group in Sydney.

S.B. Wild presented an invited lecture at the retirement symposium for Professor Ekkehard Lindner at the University of Tübingen and presented lectures at the University of Leipzig, Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich, the Technical University Munich, and École Polytechnique, Paris.